

The exercise of re-evaluating FCC media ownership seems to be well lined out. You are going to sell out what little stake the American public has in the media. It is your fault that Clear Channel has so many stations and that my area is encroached upon and threatened from TV, radio and newspaper sides. It is a sorry mess and all signs are that you are going to make it worse. Shame!